Asian American Network for Cancer Awareness, Research, and Training

2005 CHRISTOPHER N.H. JENKINS CANCER CONTROL AWARD
OF THE ASIAN AMERICAN NETWORK
FOR CANCER AWARENESS, RESEARCH, AND TRAINING

Purpose: The Christopher N.H. Jenkins Cancer Control Award is an annual, endowed award to recognize an individual who has made significant accomplishments in community-oriented cancer prevention and control efforts targeting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. The Award will be presented annually at a national meeting of the Asian American Network for Cancer Awareness, Research and Training investigators.

Qualifications of Award Recipient: The award recipient will be an individual who has made significant accomplishments in community-oriented cancer prevention and control efforts targeting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, primarily in the arenas where Chris worked. These arenas include tobacco control, hepatitis B vaccinations, breast and cervical cancer screening, nutrition, or cancer outreach and education research affecting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

Selection of Recipient: The recipient will be selected by a committee chaired by Marjorie Kagawa Singer, Ph.D., M.N., R.N., the Regional Principal Investigator (RPI) of the Asian American Network for Cancer Awareness Research & Training, Los Angeles region. Charter members of this committee include Ms. Tran Khanh Tuyet or Ms. Me Linh Jenkins or another member of Chris Jenkins' family; Ms. Thoa Nguyen, Vietnamese Committee Health Promotion Project; AANCART Regional PIs, Stephen McPhee, M.D., Vicky Taylor, M.D., M.P.H., Reginald Ho, MD, and Dileep Bal, MD, MPH, or their designees; Art Chen, M.D., Vietnamese Community Health Promotion Project's Community Advisory Board Member; Rod Lew, M.P.H., Asian Pacific Partner Empowerment and Leadership (APPEAL); and Ms. Emily Leang, UCSF Management Service Officer. The purpose of this committee is to select a recipient annually from any source based upon a call for nominees.

Recipient's Responsibilities: Over the 12-month period immediately after receiving the Award, the recipient will be responsible for:

1. Providing technical assistance or lecturing on cancer prevention and control in at least four cities with large Asian American and Pacific Islander populations;
2. Presenting the Christopher N.H. Jenkins Cancer Control Lecture at a date and place to be determined; and
3. Preparing recommendations for enhancing cancer prevention and control efforts targeting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

Award: The recipient will receive a personalized plaque and a $1,000.00 cash award. The awardee's name will be added to a plaque maintained at the AANCART national office. In addition, the awardee will be reimbursed for travel and lodging expenses related to the recipient's providing technical assistance or lectures at designated events.

Further Information: For further information, please see our Website: www.aancart.org, or Koy Parada at (310) 794-6604 or by email: Koy@ucla.edu

Individuals interested in contributing to the funding of this award, please prepare a check payable to “U.C. Regents”, memo labeled “For Chris Jenkins Memorial Fund” on check and mail it to:

Ms. Emily Leang
Management Service Officer
Division of General Internal Medicine
Department of Medicine
University of California, San Francisco
400 Parnassus Avenue, A-405
San Francisco, CA 94143-0320
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

CHRISTOPHER N.H. JENKINS CANCER CONTROL AWARD
OF THE ASIAN AMERICAN NETWORK
FOR CANCER AWARENESS, RESEARCH, AND TRAINING

DEADLINE: September 5, 2005

The ASIAN AMERICAN NETWORK
FOR CANCER AWARENESS, RESEARCH, AND TRAINING
Announces a call for nominations for the 2004 Christopher N.H. Jenkins Cancer Control Award

The awardees have been: 2001 - Gary L. Euler, Dr.PH, M.P.H., Chief, Hepatitis Activity, National Immunization Program, CDC. 2002 - Rod Lew, M.P.H., Director of Asian Pacific Partners for Empowerment and Leadership (APPEAL). 2003 - Betty Lee Hawks, Special Assistant and Senior Advisor to the Director of the Office of Minority Health (OMH) at U.S. DHHS, and 2004 – Marjorie Kagawa Singer, Ph.D., MN, RN, UCLA School of Public Health and Asian American Studies Department.

Please consider nominating someone (self-nominations encouraged!) who has made significant accomplishments in community-oriented cancer prevention and control efforts targeting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. The nominee might be someone who has made important contributions in tobacco control, hepatitis B vaccinations, breast and cervical cancer screening, nutrition, or cancer outreach, education and research affecting Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

Refer to page 1 for full description of the Award and the responsibilities of the individual selected to honor Chris and the work he has done on behalf of cancer prevention and control in Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

The 2004 awardee will present the Christopher N.H. Jenkins Cancer Control Lecture at the APHA Annual Meeting at the API Caucus Dinner in New Orleans LA . November 5-9, 2005.

To nominate someone (or yourself), please submit:
- A one page description of the nominee’s contributions
- A curriculum vitae of the nominee, and
- One or two items supporting the qualifications (e.g., reprints of articles, outreach materials, etc.)

These materials should post marked by September 5th, 2005 and sent to:

Ms. Koy Parada, MPH, PhD,
AANCART Los Angeles
UCLA - School of Public Health
650 Charles Young Drive South
Box 951772
Los Angeles, CA 90095-1772

Email: Koy@ucla.edu
PH 310/794-6604
Fax 310/794-1805